Conference Notice

The Third Annual Conference of the Asian Sport Anthropology Association, which is hosted by Asian Sport Anthropology Association, and organized by Xinjiang Normal University and The Key Research Base of Sport Social Science in Tsinghua University. The conference will take place at Xinjiang Normal University from May 17th to 20th.

The Asian Sport Anthropology Association was founded in 2009. China, Japan, Korea and Taiwan are the four divisions of the Association, and each division holds the biennial conference and the academic exchange sessions. The first academic forum of Asian Sport Anthropology Association was held at Tsinghua University in 2009. The first annual conference of Association (co-hosted by the Asian Sport Anthropology Association and the Japan Division of association, organized by Waseda University) was held in Tokyo in 2010. During the two-day conference, about a hundred researchers from China, Japan, Korea and Taiwan introduced their academic achievements, and exchanged in-depth views on research models, research trends and hotspot issues of Sport Anthropology. The conference had witnessed great achievements.

The Third Annual Conference of the Asian Sport Anthropology Association will continue the theme of “Sports, Human and Culture” and provide discussion sessions. This conference aims to establish broader and multiple platforms for Asian anthropologist and scholars to exchange thoughts as well as the cooperation between China and the world in the sports culture. Experts and scholars all over the world are warmly welcomed to contribute articles and participate to the seminar.
